AROUND THE SOCIETY...

Well, life has been a bit different around here lately, hasn't it?

After being closed for several months, our museum is once again open, but with a few changes:

- All visitors must wear a facemask while inside either of our buildings. We will have disposable masks for you if you need one.
- We will also have hand sanitizer available.
- We will be disinfecting high-touch surfaces between visitors.
- Everyone must maintain a safe distance from others while in the museum.

We've been informed that the city will not be holding any July 3 festivities. This means that we also won't be having our ice cream social this year.

We're collecting written or recorded thoughts, reflections, facts, and photos about life during the current pandemic. We'll continue to collect these stories until after the emergency is over, so if you have something to share, please email us and let us know.

Participants will need to sign a consent form to allow us to add the materials to our collection. With your help, we can create an archive of documents about this historic time for future generations.

REMEMBER: IT'S TIME TO RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP!

You can send a check to the museum or renew online (see our website).

The Mt. Healthy Historical Society Museum is open most Tuesday and Saturday mornings, 9-11, and the first Sunday of each month (except January and February), 1-3 p.m.

Our latest exhibit: the 1950s

So, we were all set to have our largest and most ambitious exhibit to date, a tribute to the 1950s. We were going to remove some long-standing displays and take over part of the museum for a slice of '50s life. Then the pandemic hit, we closed down for several months, and we reassessed our plans.

Here's a peek at our scaled-down 1950s exhibit. We hope you'll have a chance to come see it in person; we'll be leaving it up longer than normal so everyone can have a chance to stop in. Whether the '50s are an era of nostalgia for you, or well before your time, please come take a look and enjoy.

Our thanks to our business members.
Please support these local businesses!
