AROUND THE SOCIETY...

Well, there's not much news to share these days.

The museum is still open for small groups. All visitors must wear a facemask and maintain a safe distance from others while inside.

We will be holding off on monthly meetings for the time being, both out of caution and because there isn't much business to discuss these days. When we're ready to resume holding meetings, we'll let you know.

Given the current state of the pandemic, it's looking extremely unlikely that we will be able to have our annual Christmas Open House this year. We'll make our 1950s display a bit more festive for the holidays, but we won't be hosting any large crowds or special events anytime soon.

Meanwhile, we are taking advantage of this down-time to get some useful projects done around the museum. The outside of the museum building has been sealed to continue protecting this historic building for years to come. Julie and I have been working on the organizing / storage / inventory project, making a bit of a mess in the basement, but also making good headway on this huge undertaking. Hopefully we'll be finished right about the time things get back to normal and we can have special events and welcome more visitors once again.

Have a happy and healthy autumn.

Penny Huber, president

The Mt. Healthy Historical Society Museum is open most Tuesday and Saturday mornings, 9-11, and the first Sunday of each month (except January and February), 1-3 p.m.

Some of our newest acquisitions

We've been given a child's baseball uniform labeled "Dairy Bar Rebels," which we've added to our 1950s exhibit. If you have more information about this team, or any others sponsored by local businesses of the past, we would love to hear from you.

We also have a new sign out in front of the museum. The old one was rotting away, and badly needed replacing. Our thanks to Bob Curley for cutting, painting, lettering, and installing the sign. We wouldn't get much done around here without our great volunteers stepping up to help us out.

And finally, the family of long-time members Vierling and Marian Blum donated a bench in their memory. It has been installed under the Buckeye tree in front of the tollhouse, where all the old "tollhouse gang" guys used to sit and reminisce. Our thanks to the family for this wonderful gift.

Our thanks to our business members.
Please support these local businesses!
